NOTICE REGARDING JUDGE HOPPE'S DECEMBER 16, 2021
SHOW CAUSE ORDER

After hearing testimony and argument on February 25, 2022, this Court still has before it Judge Hoppe's Show Cause Order regarding the failure of Defendants and their related entities to meaningful participate in the post-judgment discovery in this case. At the February 25, 2022, hearing Mr. Donovan, owner of all the entities, represented to the Court that the entities had "no excuse for [their non-compliance] other than to say we were waiting for that KLD Discovery. Once we get it, we will produce and I will supplement." Dkt 782 at 97:15-23. Mr. Donovan represented at that hearing that that were paying KLD Discovery and had access at the time of the hearing. Id. at 98:7-9.

As with almost every promise in this case, Donovan's promise was empty. More than three months from these representation to the Court, neither Defendants nor the related entities have produced the promised materials nor served any amended interrogatories. Plaintiff renews its request to grant the contempt sanctions outlined in Dkt. 780.
